Double National Right Around the Corner

By Lindsay Fox
Buccaneer Times Editor

As July approaches plans are being made for the Lou Ella Cook Double National at Roebing Road Raceway.

The event is technically a SARRC event, but many of the Buccaneer Region's workers will be on hand to help out.

There will be competitors from all over the southeast competing for valuable national points. If there ever was a big event to attend and work at Roebing, this would be the one to go to.

For those who have not worked much in the

Joanne Albaneze

Region there are many perks offered to our members. If you work enough events the Region will pay for your membership to the SCCA.

Other perks include a worker party on Saturday and lots of prizes, usually enough for everyone.

If you are worried about a place to stay that is covered as well. The Buccaneer Region has a spot at the track you can stay. Just bring a mattress or sleeping bag and find your spot in the worker trailer. The trailer has a bathroom and most importantly, air conditioning.

If you would like to work one of the specialties look on page two and contact that specialty chief.

Letter From the Editor

Here we are, July already. The Solo programs in both the south and north are in full swing. If you are interested in Solo events check out the schedule or the Website www.buccaneerregion.com.

Speaking of visiting the Website you really should. Karen has done a great job with it and keeps it up to date all of the time. There is also a talk forum on there to share your ideas or communicate with other Region members.

I'm always looking for contributors to the newsletter. The summer months are busiest for me as I travel to the American Le Mans Series events throughout the country. If you would like to write a story or article, I'd welcome it. Please e-mail me anything you have (I'll be able to check that on the road).

I hope you all have a wonderful Independence Day holiday and enjoy the Lou Ella Cook Double National.

A Letter to the Region

It was an honor to be at the 2004 Jim Stark Memorial Race. I enjoyed the weekend of racing and appreciate the many nice things you did for me. The plant is beautiful and will remind me of the happy memories at Roebing Road.
